NOTE:

The Whitehall Township Planning Commission has an obligation to affirmatively further fair housing and to review all land use planning applications in accordance with federal civil right statutes. This includes taking meaningful actions that overcome patterns of segregation and foster inclusive communities free from barriers that restrict access to opportunity based on protected characteristics.

The Whitehall Township Planning Commission, in its land use planning decisions, does not discriminate against persons based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or familial status and reviews all land use planning applications in accordance with federal civil rights statutes. Public comments made on the basis of bias and stereotype concerning people within these protected classes will not be taken into consideration by the Whitehall Township Planning Commission in its deliberations.
